Kari started teaching at age fourteen and began dancing professionally at seventeen. Her performance experience includes commercials, music videos, and industrial shows throughout California, Texas, Las Vegas and Colorado. She returned to her home town of Colorado Springs after training and performing in Los Angeles with the industry's top instructors and choreographers.

Kari's versatile dance background and passion for the arts enables her to instruct and choreograph in jazz, lyrical, ballet & hip-hop. Her energetic teaching style motivates students to take their training to the next level. Her students have received top honors at competitions, received scholarships to the EDGE Performing Arts Studio, Univ. of Arizona and Walt Disney. Kari is the owner and artistic director of Synergy Dance Academy in Colorado Springs and is currently on staff with the Boulder Jazz Dance Workshop.
